

One Garden Place

Lakeland, FL

Wallis Murphey Boyington

Multi-Family Residential

One Garden Place is a premium condo development situated in a Historical District of Lakeland. The site consists of three buildings with porches and balconies lining the residential streets. There is an interior parking court which accesses a single car garage for each unit. The project offers a Florida Key's characteristic while maintaining the Historic details of the District.

